Dear Ms. <sup>Kate</sup>Kelly,

The Idaho Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) is requesting withdrawal of three Idaho state rules from consideration for incorporation into Idaho's State Implementation Plan (SIP). These include:

- 1) Rule for portable Nonmetallic Mineral Processing Plants (IDAPA 58.01.01.790 through 799) originally submitted to EPA on May 22, 2003 (DEQ docket 58-0101-0002) and revised and resubmitted to EPA on June 8, 2009 and May 9, 2013 (DEQ dockets 58-0101-0802 and 58-0101-1201 respectively)
- 2) Facility Emissions Cap Rule (IDAPA 58.01.01.175 through 181) submitted to EPA on May 6, 2006 (DEQ docket 58-0101-0508)
- 3) Sulfur content in fuels exemption (IDAPA 58.01.01.725.05) submitted to EPA on June 20, 2011 (DEQ docket 58-0101-0902)

Given recent discussions with EPA, DEQ plans to revise these rules for clarification and resubmit as necessary for incorporation into the Idaho SIP.
